

A Message from Premier Christy Clark

I'm pleased to welcome everyone to the first community consultation for the Punjabi Intercultural History Advisory Committee, here at the Reach Gallery and Museum in Abbotsford.

This consultation is an opportunity for regional organizations, communities and institutions to work together to preserve the stories, experiences and artefacts of Punjabi heritage in BC for future generations.

Thank you to the Royal BC Museum, the Centre for Indo Canadian Studies at the University of the Fraser Valley and to contributors from across the province for your support.

I look forward to seeing the results of these consultations.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Christy Clark". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.
